POETRY.

A LAMENT.—BY MRS OPIE.

There was an eye whose partial glance
 Could ne'er my numerous failings see ;
There was an ear that heard untired
 When others spoke in praise of me ;

There was a heart time only taught
 With warmer love for me to burn—
A heart, whene'er from home I roved,
 Which fondly pined for my return :

There was a lip which always breathed
 E'en short farewells in tones of sadness ;
There was a voice whose eager sound
 My welcome spoke with heartfelt gladness ;

There was a mind whose vigorous power
 On mine its own effulgence threw,
And called my humble talents forth,
 While thence its dearest joys it drew ;

There was a love which for my weal
 With anxious fears would overflow ;
Which wept, which pray'd for me, and sought
 From future ills to guard—but now !—

That eye is clos'd, and deaf that ear,
 That lip and voice are mute for ever,
And cold that heart of anxious love,
 Which death alone from mine could sever ,

And lost to me that ardent mind,
 Which lov'd my varied tasks to see ;
And oh ! of all the praise I gain'd,
 His was the dearest far to me !

Now I, unlov'd, uncheer'd, alone,
 Life's dreary wilderness must tread,
Till He who heals the broken heart
 In mercy bids me join the dead.

Oh, Thou ! who from thy throne on high,
 Can heed the mourner's deep distress ;
Oh, thou ! who hear'st the widow's cry,
 Thou ! father of the fatherless !

Though now I am a faded leaf
 That's sever'd from the parent tree,
And thrown upon a stormy tide—
 Life's awful tide that leads to thee ;

Still ! gracious Lord ! the voice of praise
 Shall spring spontaneous from my breast ;
Since, though I tread a weary way,
 I trust that he I mourn is blest.

THE BURNT CONVENT.

A young female, of one of the first families of Catania, was on the point of marriage with a Sicilian officer, but before the time appointed for the ceremony arrived, the regiment to which he belonged was ordered to Naples on service. It was thought advisable to defer their union until the return of the officer from the expedition. A few weeks only had elapsed after his departure, when the news arrived of his death ; he was reported to have fallen in an action with the French. The young lady, for several months indulged the hope that the disastrous tidings might be contradicted ; but not receiving any letters, she could no longer refuse her belief, and notwithstanding the opposition of her friends, insisted on retiring into a convent. On the expiration of the year of her noviciate, she bade adieu to the world forever, and took the vows. Three months after the execution of this fatal resolution, her lover returned to Catina ; he had been wounded, taken prisoner, and carried to France ; of his many letters unfortunately not one had been received. On hearing that his intended bride had on the supposition of his death, taken the veil, without reflecting that it would have been more prudent to have kept the fact of his being alive a secret from her, his first step was to obtain permission to see her in the parlor of the convent. Dreadful were the emotions of the unfortunate nun ; she tore the hated veil from her hair, rent her hair, and uttered a thousand imprecations on her precipitation. It is believed that her lover to calm the violence of her anguish and disappointment, promised if she could escape, to receive and carry her with him to some place of security and concealment.

The convent was situated in the country, at a short distance from the city : the officer took up his residence in the neighborhood. In the mean time the unhappy girl made various, but fruitless efforts to escape. At length, unable to withstand the violence of her passion, and agitated at once by love, hope, rage, despair and disappointment, she introduced herse.f into the magazines of the convent, which at that time contained the provision of wood for the consumption of several years ; this she set on fire in the hope of escaping in the confusion, knowing that the gates would necessarily be thrown open on the discovery of the fire ; but it so happened that the dry faggots burnt with such fury and rapidity, that she was dreadfully scorched and injured before she could reach the door of the magazine ; in this state, her clothes in a blaze of fire, she ran through the long corridors of the convent giving the alarm ; the flames at the same time bursting out on all sides, the terrified sisterhood rushing out half dressed from their cells, thought only of saving themselves. As she had conjectured, the doors were opened, and she contrived, notwithstanding the injuries she had received, to make her escape, and even to reach the habitation of her lover ; but the agitation, fright, and shocking manner in which she was burnt, were too much for her exhausted frame—she fell at the threshold. It was night ; her groans brought the officer, whom there is no reason to suspect of having been privy to the scheme, to the door. What must have been his surprise and anguish at so sad a spectacle ! The ill-fated young woman was instantly put to bed, and medical assistance obtained, but in vain ; after lingering some days in excessive torture, she expired in the arms of her disconsolate lover.

The convent was burnt to its foundations ; its ruins are still to be seen in the vicinity of Catania. It is some consolation to add, that no lives were lost on the occasion, except that of the unfortunate subject of our story.

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1834.

The Hon. Isaac Hill.—There is not a democrat in the Union whom the federalists hate so cordially as they do Isaac Hill of, New Hampshire, and we do not blame them for it, for no one has done more to expose their treachery and hypocrisy. In the period of the late war his services in sustaining his country against her foreign and domestic foes were so prominent that they drew forth the acknowledgements of an able military commander, and won for him the respect of every patriotic citizen. In our late political struggles he has powerfully contributed to the triumph of sound principles, and to the prostration of those reckless politicians who would sacrifice their country to gratify their will. For all this he has received the confidence and admiration of the party who elected Jefferson and Jackson to the Presidency, and the abuse of those who were allies of the British soldiers in 1814, and of the British banker in 1833. The opposition, in their attacks upon Mr Hill, are obliged to resort to mere 'blackguardism,' or direct falsehood, for they cannot point to an act of his life which is in the least discreditable to him, or that he would be unwilling to have published to the world. As a faithful public officer, an honorable citizen, and an industrious mechanic, he is not surpassed by any man in the country. In reply to a recent and dastardly attack upon his pecuniary responsibility, the New Hampshire Patriot makes the following remarks :—

"The Boston Courier, the mouth-piece of Webster—the paper which a few weeks since declared that farmers were no more fit to make laws than blacksmiths to mend watches—calls Mr Hill a "rich aristocrat," insinuates that he was worth nothing at the commencement of Gen. Jackson's administration, and that whatever he possesses now has been realized from "mail contracts, and post office jobs in twine and wrapping paper :" and the New York Advocate exclaims—"If the Postmaster General will just let us send our papers all over the country free of postage, and give us besides thirteen mail contracts, and let us fix our own extra allowances, we will engage to be worth $70,000 in one year. If Isaac Hill has not made five times 70,000 dollors since Gen. Jackson came into power, there is no truth in the Blue Book." What this miserable tool of the Bank means by reference to the blue book to convict Mr Hill of making money out of the government, no one can tell ; but certain it is that a greater amount of downright positive falsehood could not well have been crowded into a single sentence than is contained in the one above quoted. Mr Hill, in a pecuniary point of view, has never been benefitted a single cent by this administration.—Since this administration came into power, he has had no interest in a single mail contract, nor in a single job from the government of any name or nature; nor has he been interested, or in any manner concerned in the publication of any newspaper—and whatever may be his pecuniary circumstances now, certain it is that his property has not been increased since Gen. Jackson came into office—but on the contrary it has no doubt been diminished. On accepting the office of 2d Comptroller of the Treasury at the commencement of Gen. Jackson's administration, he gave up a profitable business here, from an industrious and laborious application to which he had realized all that he possessed, and his rejection by the Senate, after he had removed his family to Washington, probably left him several hundred dollars the worse for that appointment. His salary as 2d Comptroller, and his pay as Senator, is every cent Mr Hill has ever received from government, in any shape whatever. The federal tory editors do not speak of Mr Hill's interest in mail contracts, in P. O. jobs, and in the "newspaper privilege," from a misapprehension of the facts in the case, for they know better : but they mean to perpetrate wilful and deliberate falsehoods, with a malicious purpose to deceive.—They know that he has not been concerned in any manner in the publication of a newspaper, since 1829—and consequently that the "newspaper privilege," be it what it may, can in no manner affect him. They know that he is neither interested in post office jobs nor mail contracts, neither can he be, so long as he holds his seat in the Senate. But they make these assertions with a predetermined purpose to deceive, by giving currency to wilful and malicious falsehoods."

"The signs of the times" are fraught with evidence of the despondency of the federal party, and the consciousness of its members, that an overwhelming defeat awaits them in the coming contest. If they really entertained any hope of success, they would exhibit more candor in their political dealings, and more truth in their asseverations. They practice altogether upon the doctrine that a desperate disease requires a desperate remedy ; and, if such a thing were possible, we should think the desperation of their remedy, exceeded that of their disease. It may well be asked what, save the utter hopelessness of their cause, has induced so many of their strong men in Congress to resign—what has led their editors to misrepresent the result of every election, and to fail of giving their readers even a correct return of votes that they might judge for themselves—what has driven them to an effort to evade the real question at issue, the re-charter of the Bank, and to give the lie to all their former professions by declaring that that question has nothing to do with the coming contest ? It is a knowledge of their true situation, and a desire to keep the soul and body of their party together, in the vain hope that some questions of national concern and excitement may arise, through whose influence they may gain power. Let not the democracy of the country be deceived, and let them not be lulled into a false security by their present strength and future prospects.—Let us practice upon the creed, that "the only condition upon which liberty is granted to man, IS ETERNAL VIGILANCE"—and be ever on the alert to meet and conquer the old enemies of republican liberty, in all their Protean shapes. The federalists of 1800—the National Republicans of 1828, and the Bank men of 1834 are one and indivisible. They employ the same means, to gain the same end, and should be met and defeated with the same promptness, upon all occasions.

Pennsylvania.—The Harrisburg Reporter counts, with reasonable confidence, upon the election to Congress of twenty-one friends of the administration, and opponents of the Bank, and six in favor of the Bank, without taking into consideration the member who may be chosen in Bucks County, where the chances are about equal. The present delegation stand, 11 administration, 17 Bank. "That the approaching contest (concludes the Reporter) will terminate in a manner signally triumphant for the democratic cause, we have no doubt ; and we cannot but regard the information received from various parts, and which we now lay before our readers, as affording clear and accurate indications of the result."

"M. M." utters the feelings of an affectionate heart, but not in a form proper for print.

For the Boston Morning Post.

Thersites.—To the aged member of the House from Rhode Island has been frequently applied the designation Thersites. Perhaps some of our readers may not know who Thersites was, and may not, therefore, feel the force of the allusion. After the account which we are about to give, it may be thought that the Rhode Island gentleman has no exclusive right to the appellation. Other members of the House, and even some of the Senate, may possibly be deemed worthy of the distinction which this celebrated name confers, and which has been handed down to us from very remote ages.

Thersites is a character in the Iliad of Homer. He was a subordinate chief among the Greeks, at the siege of Troy ;—or, at least, his rank was such that he was entitled to a seat at the councils of war. He was a great speech-maker, and delighted in slandering, abusing and belying his betters, and those in the highest authority, particularly Agamemnon, the commander-in-chief of the Greeks. The account which Homer gives of him is principally contained in the extract from the Iliad, which we give below. One of his speeches is reported at length by the poet ;—but as the subject and the allusions are altogether local, relating to the particular occurrences and affairs, which then agitated the Greek councils, and which have no analogy with the events which have produced the late political excitements among us, we have omitted it. It is not, however, in its style and character, very unlike the disgraceful harangues which have too often been heard at the capitol.

It is worthy of remark, that after the speech of Thersites, to which we have alluded, and after his punishment and disgrace by Ulysses, he sunk into such profound and deserved contempt, that he is not once again mentioned throughout the whole Iliad.—Verbum sat.

But still THERSITES clamor'd in the throng,
Loquacious, loud, and turbulent of tongue ;
Awed by no shame, by no respect controll'd,
In scandal busy, in reproaches bold ;
With witty malice studious to defame,
Scorn all his joy, and laughter all his aim.
But most he gloried, with licentious style,
To lash the great, and mighty chiefs revile :
Spleen to mankind his envious heart possest,
And much he hated all, but most the best ;
Ulysses or Achilles still his theme,
But higher scandal his delight supreme.
Long had he been the scorn of every Greek ;—
Vext when he spoke, yet still they heard him speak.
At length, his patience gone, Ulysses springs
In worthy vengeance on this thing of things :
With indignation sparkling in his eyes,
He views the wretch, and sternly thus replies :—
"Peace, factious monster, born to vex the state
With wrangling talents, form'd for foul debate ;
Curb that impetuous tongue, nor, rashly vain,
And basely mad, asperse thy chief again.
Have we not known thee, slave ! of all our host,
The man who acts the least, upbraids the most ?
For our success we trust the heavenly powers ;—
Be that their care—to act like men be ours.
What hast thou borne of all the general load ?
Except detraction, what hast thou bestowed ?
Gods ! let me perish on this hateful shore,
And let these eyes behold my home no more,
If, on thy next offence, this hand forbear
To strip those arms thou ill deserv'st to wear,
Expel thee from the council where we meet,
And send thee scourg'd and howling through the fleet."
He said, and cowering as the dastard bends,
The weighty truncheon on his back descends ;
On his bruis'd flesh the bloody tumours rise,
And tears spring starting from his haggard eyes.
Trembling he sat, and shrunk in abject fears,
From his vile visage wip'd the scalding tears ;
While to his neighbor each express'd his thought—
"Ye Gods ! what wonders has Ulysses wrought !
What fruits his conduct and his courage yield,
Great in the council, glorious in the field !
Generous he rises in the state's defence,
To curb the factious tongue of insolence ;
To vindicate the brave, support his cause,
Sedition silence, and assert the laws."

Ohio.—A letter from this State, published in the Albany Argus, says—

"From all the information I can obtain, I can assure you, notwithstanding the boasting of our opponents, Ohio will give a stronger democratic vote than she has ever heretofore given. Lucas was elected in' 32, by a majority of rising 8000. This fall his majority at the lowest calculation will exceed 10,000, and I should not be the least surprised to see it more than doubled. My reason is simply this—a large portion of the reserve Anti-masons and anti-Bank men will vote for Lucas, the anti-Bank candidate. Findley is the acknowledged Bank candidate, though with the exception of his views on this subject, he is still a Jacksonian. The whigs, however, are determined to run him, though void of all those necessary qualifications which should render the station respectable or desirable. But this is not all.—No man has ever filled the station of Governor of this State, with so much credit to himself, and honor to the State, as Gen. Lucas. His bitterest enemies admit it, and there are a large portion of the old Clay party, who are so much dissatisfied at the preference given to a seceder from Jacksonism, that they will not vote at all, or not for Findley. Again, the state is anti-Bank, and that question will be the sole test with us.

"Our prospects for Congress are good. The only members considered doubtful are Lytle, 1st district, Allen, 7th, and M'Lene, in this (9th) district. My opinion is, that Lytle and Allen will both be re-elected ; ours is doubtful. I also think that we shall elect members in the 3d, 11th, and fifteenth districts, which will leave our majority, should we lose the three above-named, the same as last winter."

A Great Conflagration.—We learn by a slip from the Oneida (N. Y.) Democrat office, dated the 18th inst., that about one o'clock that morning a fire broke out in rear of a house owned by Mr Dupree, on the west side of Catharine street, which was surrounded by wooden buildings, and before it could be got under had burned to the ground twenty-one buildings, and unroofed two more. The furniture and property, in nearly all, was saved. The Post office was burned to the ground, but not until all the property within had been removed to a place of safety. The loss is estimated at $10,000, principally in buildings.

Between two and three hundred young men, headed by the Captain of the Watch, made an attack upon ten gaming houses in Richmond, Va., on the 15th inst., and destroyed all the gaming implements found in the different apartments, without disturbing, or in any way injuring any other kind of property. Among other things, five or six hundred packs of cards were thrown into the street. The fragments of the articles were burnt, by order of the Mayor, on the succeeding morning.

Crops.—The accounts of the prospect of the present cotton crop, from South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Arkansas, are highly gratifying.

POLICE COURT.

Backing out.—John W. Hamilton found a carpenter's bevel on the back bay—or at least he said so ; but he could not make the incredulous court believe it, and he was therefore sentenced to the house of correction for three months. This moderate allowance did not, at first, satisfy his inordinate appetite for the flesh pots of South Boston, and he inquired of the Court—"Can't your honor give me six months—the three months will spoil my winter's work, for when I come out all the good situations will be taken up."

Court.—Well, I don't know :—Have you ever been in the house of correction ?

Hamilton.—Oh, yes, indeed—a small sample—just two months only.

Court.—That is a circumstance in favor of giving you a longer privilege, it is true. Mr Officer, you know him—what is best to do about it ?

Officer.—I guess you'd better let him have the six—he won't be fit for any thing, if he does come out sooner.

Court.—Mr Clerk, say six——

Hamilton.—I guess you need'nt, come to consider on it—I think I shall be able to make out with the three.

As the court merely intended to oblige Hamilton, it did not force the extended gratuity with pertinacious politeness apon him, but ordered his committal for the original term of three months ; and the happy man retired, in company with the officer, singing, with considerable sweetness and mellowness of intonation, upon the prospect of returning to his former domicil, "Home, home, Sweet Home," to which his honor responded, by "hoping that he would find a sweeter one than the back bay."

Fraudulent attempt at Suicide.—John Mark Horn, who was sentenced to the house of correction last week, for keeping bachellor's hall on the Common, was suspected afterwards to have stolen the coat he wore to prison, as it answered the description of one missing. He was informed of the suspicions against him upon the subject, while he was employed, with other convicts, at work on the wharf, at South Borton ; and when the officer approached to arrest him, he jumped overboard, in order to cheat the gallows of its due.—After splashing round in the water long enough to get an elegant cleansing, he was drawn out, much improved by the experiment, and conveyed to the Police Court, where he was convicted upon the new charge, and sentenced to three months imprisonment, in addition to his prior complement of six. He belongs to Dover, N. H., and had a considerable estate left him by his father.

Beginning at the right end.—A young man by the name of Lewis Cass, probably about to establish himself in the highway business, called at the store of Chs. Bond, in Cornhill, on Monday evening, and, after inquiring the prices of a number of articles, seized an elegant pair of percussion pistols, valued at $14.00, and ran off, but was instantly followed by a couple of young men in the store, and was overtaken before he had measured 50 yards of pavement. Whatever may be thought of his honesty, no one can question his judgment and equal dealing, in providing himself with such appropriate tools upon the same terms that he intended to carry on his trade in general with. Committed for trial at the Municipal Court.

It will be recollected by our readers that in April last, we published an account of the death of Josiah Buckland, of Springfield, aged 13 years, occasioned by a pistol shot fired by his playmate Moses Elliot, aged 12 years.—The latter was recently tried at Springfield before the Supreme Court, for the crime of murder. It seems the boys had formed a plan to run away together, and that they were proceeding on their way to this city—that they stopped to fire at a mark, and that when the deceased would set up a mark for the prisoner to fire at, he would discharge his pistol before the former was at a safe distance from the mark—that Moses threw away his ramrod, and sent Josiah to pick it up, and that while he was in the act of doing it he shot him, the ball entering the left breast and coming out at the back. These facts were obtained from the dying declaration of the deceased, who lived five days after he received the wound. Moses' subsequent conduct in attempting to conceal what he had done, and his misrepresenting the facts were cited in evidence against him—but his counsel contended that his conduct was the result of boyish fear, and that the dying declarations of Josiah were not entitled to credit, because in the opinion of the physicians, he was insane, although it was admitted he had lucid intervals, and his mother and other witnesses testified to his sanity. The Jury, after being out about two hours, returned a verdict of not guilty, and the boy was immediately restored to his parents.

To the Editor of the Post.—I wish to rectify the exaggerations of the affair on Cragie's Bridge, on Sunday evening, copied into Tuesday's Post, from the Mercantile Journal. I was coming into Boston, about 7 o'clock, on Sunday evening, with my wife, sister, and daughter ; while passing the bridge, we were met by two men, one of whom rudely assaulted my wife, and passing on repeated the assault upon my daughter, who, with my sister, formed another couple behind me. I attacked him with my umbrella, and subsequently with my fist ; but he succeeded in escaping from me, but none of us were knocked down or hurt.

JOHN KENDALL.

☞ Mr. K. informs us that he has obtained a clue to the villain who committed the assault.

A man by the name of Geo. Gill, has been convicted of murder in the first degree, in Philadelphia.

Mnnicipal.—At a meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen on Monday :—

Orders passed directing that the new street laid out from Chatham street to Haverhill street, over thr former Mill Creek, be hereafter called and knowu by the name of Blackstone street ; to open Ash street through to South Bennet street ; and to remove the buildings for the purpose of widening Washington street opposite Boylston Market.

Jabez Hatch, Jr., licensed as an auctioneer, and his bonds approved.

Warrants were granted to Milton A. Shaw, as First Assistant Foreman of Engine No. 1 ; and William Marshall, as First Assistant Foreman of Engine No 4.

Sickness at the House of Correction.—Thirty-five to forty cases of cholera morbus occurred on Monday at the House of Correction, at South Boston. The disease is slight, and no patient is in danger. Similar occurrences are frequent in establishment of this kind, and excite no alarm.—Trans.

FOREIGN.

Latest from Europe.—By the ship Poland, from Havre, Aug. 16, we are in possession of our regular files to the day of her sailing, inclusive. They contain nothing of very particular interest.—N. Y. Times.

In Spain, the Queen's army was pushing all the insurgents to the French frontiers, and the emigration to France, it was supposed, would be very considerable.

All the Carlist army was vacating Navarre, but a small column. The object was to protect some ammunition which was landing, and of which they were much in want. The Quotidienne says that Don Carlos' army was to sustain itself at a small post until the resources which he expected were realized.

General Mina had arrived at Bordeaux, where he was well received. A public dinner was tendered to him by his political friends, which he declined in consequence of his desire to proceed immediately to Spain. He left Bordeaux for his native land August 12.

The French government intend retaining possession of Algiers. The last Moniteur contains a Royal ordonnance for its regulation.

Louis Phillippe was about visiting Bordeaux and other places in France.

Intelligence from Madrid to the 7th has been received by express. It brings the financial scheme of M. de Toreno. It is stated that the Minister, to save his own responsibility, has proposed the reduction of the debt only to one half ; but the general opinion is, that the Procuradores will only recognize two fifths of the active debt. In the sitting of the 4th, the draught of the Address of the Committee passed by a majority of 14 ; but on the 5th Ministers carried, by a majority of five, that the paragraph relating to the liberty of the press should be sent back to the Committee for the purpose of modifying the expressions. In the sitting of the 5th the Ministry obtained some new modifications, and on the 7th the amended Address was voted.

Poland.—Condemnation of the Patriots.—After the lapse of more than twelve months, the Extraordinary Tribunal at Warsaw, instituted for the purpose of trying the principal actors in the Polish Revolution, has at length come to a final judgment. The members of the government of the Five are all condemned to death, without excepting even the Generalissimo Skrzynecki, who only formed part of the Councils on extraordinary occasions. The second Generalissimo, Prince Michael Radziwill, is not included. This indulgence is attributed to the intercession of the Court of Prussia, to which the family of the Prince is allied. Of all the members of the Government affected by this judgment, the venerable Vincent Niemoiowski is the only one remaining in Poland, the others having taken refuge in foreign countries. After the publication of the judgment, the Lieutenant General of the Kingdom, Prince Paskewitch, had Niomojowski brought before him loaded with chains, and recommended him to implore the clemency of the Emperor, but the noble-minded old man rejected the counsel.

The Lieutenant General, however, has demanded his pardon of the Emperor, attributing the obstinacy of Niemojowski to mental alienation in consequence of the sufferings he had undergone during his confinement in his dungeon. The same judgment also condemns to death all who filled public offices before the Revolution, and afterwards took part in the regency of Zakroczym. This class is very numerous, as they have included in it all the deputies as public functionaries. The mode of execution varies according to the degree of culpability. Some are to be decapitated, and others are to be gibbetted, and the judges have carried their barbarity so far as to order that the execution of the young men, who gave the first signal of the Revolution by attacking the Palace of Belvidere, shall be preceded by mutilation. Prince Czartoryski, Messrs. Morousky, and Barsikowsky are condemned to death, as well as Niemojowsky as members of the Government of Five. The same penalty is to be inflicted upon Lelewdt, as a conspirator, and on Sezarnisky, Bienazky, B. Niemejowski, and P. Wysezki, Vincent Niemojowski, and P. Wysorzky, are alone reprieved.

The list of persons indicted by the Grand Jury for participating in the destruction of the Convent, published yesterday, on authority of the Bunker Hill Aurora, we have since been informed was erroneous. The following is a correct list :

On the general indictment : John Buzzell alias John R. Buzzell, Prescott P. Pond, Wm. Mason, Nathaniel Budd alias Nathan Budd, Jr., Marvin Marcy, Sargent Blaisdell, Aaron Hadley, Jr., Benj. Wilbur, Isaac Parker, Alvah Kelley, Thomas Dillon.

On separate indictments : Wilder S. Thurston, John R. Buzzell, Henry Buck, Thomas Mahar.

No indictment was found against Wm. Lewis or J. H. Conant, as stated in the Aurora.—Trans.

Savannah, Sept. 12.—There have been four deaths since last report on Major Wightman's plantation but no new cases for 3 days past. The disease however, is spreading in an alarming manner, throughout all the plantations on the Savannah river, and some cases in this city. It is on the Carolina side—on our Sea Islands, and in Bryan County.

☞ The alarm of fire about 10 o'clock last evening, was occasioned by the burning of a chimney at the north part of the city. We learn that a lad was run over by one of the engines and severely injured.

OBITUARY.

PETER BOYLSTON BOARDMAN.

The recent decease of this estimable young man is strongly calculated to excite the sympathies of those who were privileged to participate in the pleasures of his society. Amiable in character, modest and unobtrusive in his deportment, and with a mind well stored with useful knowledge, he was calculated strongly to attach himself to those who came within the sphere of his acquaintance. In the social circle in which he moved, and of which he was the acknowledged ornament, his death has caused a void which will not soon be filled, and which friendship will not soon cease to deplore. At a period when the gay visions of youth had been tempered by the experience of maturer years, when the bud of youthful promise had just ripened into manhood, and he had begun to play his part in the business and bustle of active life, he has been suddenly cut down, and the place which once knew him will know him no more forever. Let a recollection of his virtues, and the fidelity with which he discharged the various duties of life, be an incentive to those of his associates who survive to act well their part, that like him they may leave to their survivors the example of a like virtuous career.

"Green be the grass above thee,
Friend of my better days ;
None knew thee but to love thee,
Nor named thee but to praise." S.

RICHARDSON & HARE'S
ESTABLISHMENT OF OFF-HAND PENMANSBIP,
COURSE OF TUITION TO CONSIST OF FORTY LESSONS OF ONE HOUR EACH.
Classes in Session Morning, Noon and Evening.
Rooms Codman's Buildings, corner West and Washington sts.

MESSRS. R. & H. in presenting their claims to the public attention, cannot offer any royal or novel system for their patronage, by which bad writers are made accomplished penmen in the course of a few hours or even minutes—they are aware that "the age of miracles is past, as well as the days of chivalry." They pretend not to effect any more than science and experience can accomplish; but with THESE means they hope to impart as much benefit to their pupils, and effect as great improvements as have ever been attained in their profession.

Their system of instruction is intended to combine the two opposite but important advantages, in the MODE by which writing is performed—the effective, rapid extension and inflection of the fingers, as well as the movement of the whole arm.

They have concentrated the too generally diffused principles in the most plain and perspicuous form, consistent with the practical advantage of the student; they have endeavored to adopt the "happy medium" in avoiding the Scylla and Charybdis of the art. The dull, slow progress of the VIEUX REGIME, and the fatal rapidity of the new chain lightning styles. They flatter themselves they can offer to the public some new and ingenious methods for the illustration and tuition of ORNAMENTAL PENMANSHIP.

ORNAMENTAL PENMANSHIP, of all descriptions, on reasonable terms.

☞ Designs drafted, perpetual Engine and Club rolls, Diplomas, Certificates and Albums executed and Ornamented.—Cards &c. written.

Testimonials of approbation, etc. have been received from the following gentlemen:

IRON SAFES.—S. A. & W. G. PIERCE, Agents for selling Gaylor's Patent Double Fire Proof Wrought Iron Chests and Safes, 370 Washington-street, have now on hand a large assortment, comprising all the sizes and kinds which are calculated for the use of Banks, Insurance Offices, Town Records, Merchants, and others.

The above Chests are double throughout in all their parts, with double doors, each secured with Chubb's Patent Detector Locks, which cannot be picked; and the Chests are as completely Fire Proof as any vault or chest can be made. Proof of which can be seen by those who will take the trouble to call at the Agent's Store and examine a Double Chest which has passed through a very severe fire, and preserved a valuable lot of books and papers, belonging to John S. Abbott, Esq., whose name is attached to the following certificate:

"This is to certify, that one of the above described Double Safes, which I purchased of the Messrs. S. A. & W. G. Pierce was in my office in this town when the office was burned on the 2d day of November last—the building was of two stories, wooden, and large. The Safe, weighing 700 lbs. fell from the second story into the cellar, and was exposed to an intense heat for nearly three hours. It was for a long time literally red hot. It contained all the account books, notes, and court-papers, that were in my office; and no paper was in the least degree burnt or rendered illegible. JOHN S. ABBOTT.

Thomaston, January 8th, 1834."

The above Chest, and some of the papers which were in it at the time of the fire, are now at the Agents' store, corner of Essex and Washington streets, and any individual or corporation who are about purchasing Iron Safes for the protection of their books and papers, will find it for their advantage to call and examine them, and they will be perfectly satisfied that Gaylor's Double Safes are what they are represented to be—FIRE PROOF! and they will be still further satisfied that none other but the Double Safe would stand a severe fire.

Gaylor's Double Safes are a Patent article, and can only be legally purchased in this city of S. A. & W. G. PIERCE, who are his authorized Agents. tf—jan 31

RODGERS' IMPERIAL STOCKS.

6 Joy's Building, up stairs.

[Opposite the Post Office, Boston.]

WILLIAM H. ROGERS most respectfully invites the attention of Merchant Tailors and the public generally, to his new invented Imperial Stocks for the Neck, which for ease and elegance very far surpass every thing of the kind hitherto manufactured in this vicinity. They are cut scientifically; the materials and manner of making are quite different from those in common use, and they may be covered many times, and retain exactly the same shape as when first made. W. H. R. requests permission to enumerate the usual faults in the common Stocks, viz: 1st, the very inferior materials used; 2d, their sitting away from the chin and exposing the neck, when disagreeably close at the bottom; 3d, the edge at the top being uncomfortably tight, as to cause a distortion of the features by moving the head; 4th, that of their bulging out at the sides, by moving the head a little downwards, which has a most distasteful appearance. By W. H. Rogers' deservedly admired and extensively patronized invention, all these faults are completely obviated. Naval and military gentlemen will find them the most pleasing and durable. Made to order of any texture, by the dozen or single, at the lowest cash prices. Ladies' Riding Stocks beautifully made to order. tf—july 23

PURE BEAR'S OIL may be had by the groce, dozen or single bottle, of A. BOYDEN, Hancock-st.

As in all cases, so especially in this, Venders, if they wish to secure the patronage of the public, should be extremely cautious not to sell an article for the Hair which tends to counteract rather than assist nature.

The virtues of Bear's Oil have been too long tested to need any eulogium; and at this time no one can doubt of its being the very best article for strengthening and promoting the growth of the Hair. An honest prejudice against the use of Bear's Oil has long existed, arising from two causes—the improper method of purifying it, and the imposition upon the public of a spurious article. That this prejudice may be wholly removed, this article now offered is warranted the pure Oil, rendered more pleasant by the addition of a little perfume—and the possibility of its injuring the Hair is entirely precluded by the manner in which it has been purified. To prevent fraud, the genuine is enclosed in two wrappers, the inside one being signed Arnold Boyden. aug 15

A. WATKINS, THOMSONIAN BOTANIC PHYSICIAN—Infirmary, Harvard street, (opposite 499 Washington street,) Boston—Has been acquainted with and possessed of a right to use Dr. Samuel Thomson's Patent Vegetable Medicine, for the last 21 years, and administered them in Europe, and South and North America, (including the West India Islands,) and with as much success as any other can, (with truth,) boast of. In the nine months' practice he has had at the Harvard street Infirmary, he has not had the misfortune to lose ONE patient, although many of them had been for years in the hands of the members of the Medical Faculty, and some of them abandoned to their (supposed) hopeless fate. As he is so well known in Boston, it is unnecessary to enter very largely into a detail of success. The following are a few o his patients:—

Stephen Gore, (inquire at Thomas Holland's Beach street, Boston,) totally blind for about 5 months, one eye, nearly destroyed, general debility, legs swollen and lame—appeared completely charged with poisons. General health restored; eye sight good—could see to read (without glasses) in 5 courses, &c. better than he could for seven years previous.

Mr. Parker, now assistant at the Infirmary, rheumatism and dyspepsia, cured in 3 courses.

Francis Kemlo, 153 Court street, Boston, severe indigestion and spasms, cured in four courses, &c.

Thomas Pierson, of Roxbury, and keeps a stall in the new Market, Boston,) erysipelas in the face and one eye; leg very much swollen and ulcerated from the knee to the ancle for the last 25 years—attended by many physicians; nearly cured in 5 weeks

Miss Charlotte Pierson, do. white swelling, with loss of appetite, &c. under medical treatment 5 months, and unable to walk—cured in 3 weeks.

Jesse Brown, baker, of Roxbury, rheumatic and retrocedent gout; stomach, knees, ancles and toes greatly affected; has been confined to bed nine weeks—cured in 4 courses, &c.

Miss A. Brown, his daughter, scrofula or king's evil, cured with 4 courses, &c.

J. D. Smith, of Lexington, dyspepsia, of several years continuance—cured in 3 courses, &c.

Samuel Hawes, of Weymouth, rheumatism in the back, strictures in the urinary passage, general emaciation, &c.—cured in 6 courses, &c.

S. Smith, calico printer, of Lynn, pain in the stomach and back, and strictures across the breast, &c.—cured in 2 courses.

—— Toll, of Shepard street, Lynn, fits and severe cholic, from indigestion—cured in 2 days!

Benj. Morgan, of Salem, cancerous or scorbutic humors, hand ulcerated, debility and loss of flesh; piles severe, and unable to dress or undress himself for a considerable time—cured with 5 courses, &c.

Joseph Kerrier, of Salem, rheumatism in his shoulders and arms—cured in 2 courses, &c.

Sarah Town, of Andover, indigestion, severe pains throughout the system, and piles—cured with 3 courses, &c.

Mrs Lucinda Kerr, Sea street, Boston, salt rheum; top of the head one entire scab—cured in 4 courses, &c.

A. W. cannot be at the expense to enumerate more cases, at present. He has not named cases of fevers, they are almost too ephemeral in the hands of a physician acquainted with his duty—the ignoramus or continued fever, is unknown in the practice of such. Delicacy will not not permit the naming of several diseases, which he has treated with universal success. In almost all the cases of diseases which have been treated by him, he has been under the necessity to expel not only the disease, but the poisons which produced and continued them—and all with INNOCENT and HARMLESS SIMPLES.

This practice induces him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons af the Medical Faculty from the human system, when resorted to in seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above, of

ANDREW WATKINS,

Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON.

DR. WARNER'S PURIFYING VEGETABLE POWDERS, Or FAMILY BITTERS—yielding its strength to Wine or water.

As a security against counterfeits, the label will be signed by the wholesale agent, PARKER BARNES. Likewise the steel plate will be observed, as there is a spurious article, which has been offered to the public.

In the spring of the year, every one is troubled more or less with a propensity to sleep, and by the use of this corrective it can be obviated entirely. For purifying and eradicating all kinds of humors from the blood, even if they appear externally in the face, or any part of the body, it is much better and my more efficacious than any external application; in fact I seldom knew it to fail proving effectual. The patient will find it operates more in the blood than any other preparation they ever referred to; it is far better than salts, sulphur, cream tarter, or any other preparation of this kind, for when the blood is once purified with this corrective, it remains in an even temperature through the summer months. For a foul stomach, jaundice, general debility, weakness of limbs, want of appetite, billious and liver complaints, headach, stupor, &c. For the catarrh, which is generally occasioned by the impure state of the blood, there is nothing extant that has proved so efficacious as this purifying corrective. For all the above complaints it is seldom known to fail in proving an effectual remedy.

It is really worth the public attention, as every one is aware of the unpleasant, dull, heavy feeling, which the spring of the year produces; and by the use of this corrective, it can be obviated entirely. Every one who makes use of the above preparation, will be astonished at the mild and gentle effect it has on the blood.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify, that I have been troubled in the spring and summer seasons with a dull and stupid feeling, which very much troubled me while about my business, and by taking some of Warner's Purifying Powders, I have found it a perfect remedy, and with confidence recommend it to others who may be similarly affected. ELIAS PIKE.

Boston, April 16th, 1832.

Joseph Moore, of Boston, certifies that he has taken Warner's Family Corrective, or Purifying Powder for purifying the blood, and curing of jaundice, and likewise removing the propensity to sleep, and has found it an effectual remedy.

April 1st, 1832.

I hereby certify that I have taken Warner's Vegetable Purifying Powders for the cure of the jaundice; likewise for purifying the blood, and removing the propensity for sleep which I am always troubled with in the spring of the year. From the benefit which I have received for the above complaints, I cordially recommend it to all that may be similarly affected.

JOHN B. FINN.

Feeling grateful for the benefit which I have received from taking Dr Warner's Vegetable Bitters, for the cure of the jaundice, weakness of the limbs, want of appetite, indigestion, &c. do recommend it as a safe and efficacious remedy for the above complaints. P. COFFIN.

Boston, March 1, 1833.

Other reference to its efficacy may be had by calling on the agent. To be had at wholesale of my sole agent in this city, PARKER BARNES, No 424 Washington street, and retailed by all the principal Druggists, in Boston and vicinity. a116mo

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—MR. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dye House office, (at the sign of the Eagle and Truss) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr Beath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr Foster has been making them on Mr Beath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not followed it steadily and exclusively, he has made them for himself 15 years past, and for individuals who he is at liberty to refer to. Mr F. having been severely afflicted with the disease himself, since the age of 12 years, considers himself as possessing a thorough knowledge of the business. All Trusses made and sold by him, will be warranted to keep the protruded parts within the cavity of the abdomen.

Among the variety of Trusses made by Mr Foster, are Patent Elastic Spring Trusses, with Spring Pads;—Trusses without steel springs; these give relief in all cases of rupture, and in a large portion produce a perfect cure. They can be worn day and night. Improved Hinge and Pivot Trusses, Umbilical Spring Trusses, and Trusses with Ball and Socket joints.—Trusses for Polapsus Ani, by wearing which, persons troubled in that way, can ride on horseback with perfect ease and safety. Mr F. also makes Trusses for Prolapsus Uteri, which have answhred in cases where pessaries have failed. Suspensary Trusses, Knee Caps, and Common Trusses are kept always on hand, charged at the lowest prices. Machines for remedying deformities.

Mr F. will wait on individuals at their houses when preferred—he takes measure of infants at any age, and makes Trusses for both double and single ruptures, which may be worn without pain or inconvenience, and which in many cases will produce a perfect cure, in the space of six or twelve weeks, in such little children; he has had occasion to make a number of late, the Fathers and Mothers of which he will refer to, as well as the Physicians by whom they were recommended to Mr Foster.

Individuals purchasing Trusses of the subscriber, which fail in answering the desired purpose, are respectfully invited to call and exchange them for those that will, and for which there will be no extra charge.

Surgeon's Instruments, and Trusses repaired at the Manufactory.

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints; weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pains over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain attended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks, I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, to be a very valuable medicine.

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half: and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr., No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John I. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer street, Boston; Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown, E. G. Lemon, Roxbury.

PATENT FOR THE U. STATES.—Mott's Patent Medicated and Champoo Baths, and Systematic Vegetable Medicine. These baths are well known to the medical faculty as being patronized by the most eminent Physicians of Europe and Asia, and are considered in the Oriental Empires as the greatest luxury they enjoy, being a preventive as well as a cure of contagious diseases—and they are now introduced in the United States in a new and perfect form, and with the greatest confidence of success. These Baths are medicated according to the disease—they are now open to the public, and will be administered to families or individuals, under the direction, or according to the prescription of their physician.

Dr. Mott will undertake the cure (or the relief) of all Chronic Diseases, Wounds, (however of long standing,) Ulcers, Abscesses, internal or external, Gout, Rheumatism, TicDoloroux, Cancers, Imposthumes, and other complaints incident to the human frame.

Dr. M. will personally superintend the various Baths, and attend to the prescriptions of the Medical Gentlemen in behalf to their patients.

Without boasting of the cures that have been performed, or pretending to any wonderful knowledge, he would merely say, he would be happy to render the Baths, and the system of Medicine itself, useful to the high Medical Talent of Boston, leaving it to an enlightened public to decide.

Those spacious premises have been fitted up with great expense, at the corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets, and other places have been purchased to be fitted up as auxiliary establishments. It may be proper to state, that no mercury or mineral preparations are used—no hot medicines, or cold water—but it is, in fact, a union of the simples of the Materia Medica with the Herbal Medica—therefore called Vegetable.

Teeth and Corns, he will undertake to extract scientifically; Bunions on the joints, compound or cancerous Toe Nails, and other diseases of the Feet, diseases of the Eyes, &c.

Male Patients only attended to by me. Mrs. Mott, the Females and Children. No out door cases can be attended to.

POSITIVE, OR NO PAY.—Mrs. Hill's Cough Drops, or Vegetable Health Restorative.—Prepared entirely from Vegetables.

More than forty years have now elapsed since the receipt was given me by my uncle, a celebrated Physician, at a time that I was troubled with a very bad cough and cold. After taking one dose, I found immediate relief, and a few doses cured me entirely; the effects were astonishing quick, and the numerous instances of the wonderful efficacy of these drops on different people, has induced me to put them up in Phials, with directions, under the impression it would be a public benefit. And as that is my sole aim—and to convince the public that is all, and as a sure guarantee against quackery and deception, I authorise my agents to return the money to all those that do not get relief by their returning the bottle and directions. The relief and absolute cure, particularly of those numerous and complicated disorders arising from neglected colds, is amply attested by the acknowledged approbation of those who are now restored to perfect health, as well as many in the decline of life who frankly acknowledge having received great relief from the use of them in the following diseases, viz:—Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Influenza, Quinsea, Phthisic, Croup, and all disorders arising from colds. Price 37½ cents per bottle.
